704; those on hand June 30, 1893, none. The cases received show a falling off over the previous year. Many cases are arising under the act of July 27, 1892, to pension survivors of various Indian wars, the principal labor being to ascertain whether organizations to which applicants belonged were in the military service of the United States, so as to give them a pensionable status. During the last fiscal year the individual military records of officers and en-listed men in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana have been completed according to the index record card system, and work begun on the records of Illinois. The latter will be completed in a few weeks. This leaves only the Veteran Reserve Corps and other United States volunteers, besides the post death detachment and miscellaneous rolls to be completed. The records of the revolution and war of 1812, which an act of Congress of July 27, 1892, required should be indexed, have not yet been transferred from the Treasury and Interior Departments. The determination of the military status of the several classes of troops has been an important feature of the carding of the report. During the fiscal year 8,421,478 index record cards were filed. This makes a total of 35,099,755 index record cards so filed that the record of any one individual soldier can readily be found.

Lochren Has Not Resigned.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- The report is being widely circulated to-night that Commissioner of Pensions Lochren has resigned. The reason assigned for the resignation is that he is an old soldier, and is dissatisfied with the attitude of the administration concerning reforms in the pension list. It is also rumored that First Deputy Murphy will take charge. Secretary Smith, when seen to-night, contradicted the report and insisted that there was no truth in it. Commissioner Lochren, when questioned regarding his reported resignation, said: "You can deny in most emphatic terms for me any statement that I have resigned. I am deeply interested in the reforms which the present administration is making in the pension bureau and intend to carry them out to the best of my ability." Secretary Hoke Smith has appointed William V. Reppert, of Liberty, Ky., a member of the board of pension appeals. The other members of the board are Orson H. Gilmore, of Illinois; John A. Lacey, of Missouri; John S. Payne, of Tennessee; J. C. McAllister, of Pennsylvania; Robert T. Hill, of Michigan; Patrick J. Rogers, of New York, and Herbert I. Brackett, of Wis-

NO MINORITY TARIFF BILL. Republicans Will Simply Fight the Measure Presented by Democrats. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- "There will be no minority tariff bill presented for the purpose of antagonizing the measure which will be reported next month by Chairman Wilson," said Representative Burrows, of Michigan, a Republican member of the ways and means committee, just before leaving the city to engage in the Ohio campaign. "We shall stand firm upon the McKinley law. It is good enough for us. It has been tried and has given the country the greatest era of prosperity it has ever enjoyed. It is possible that, had we reelected our President last year and secured both branches of Congress, we would have slightly amended the law in a few particulars, as no measure of such widespread importance and with so many technical features can be made perfect upon first effort. But in the coming tariff struggle the Republicans will simply oppose the Demo-cratic tariff bill, leaving them upon the record they have made "Will the Republicans fight the details of the Wilson bill when it comes before the "Certainly," replied the Michigan leader. "We shall point out some of the benefits the country has derived under the existing schedules as the items in them come up, and will point out the viciousness of the propositions in the new measure. I have no doubt the fur will fly in many places, and there will be barrels and jags of good campaign material in the debate. We will resist the bill as firmly as possible, and the Republicans in the Senate will do the same

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

Statement Showing that Balance of Trade Is Against Us.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- The chief of the Bureau of Statistics has issued a summary statement of the imports and exports of the United States for September. It shows that the total imports of merchandise during the month of September were valued at $46,303,590, as compared with imports of the value of $67,466,062 during September of last year. Of the imports this year $25,418,671 were free of duty and $20,884,919 were dutiable. The imports for nine months ended Sept. 30, 1893, were $625,331,972, and for the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1892, were $636,-106,009. The exports of domestic merchandise for September were $70,014,413, and for September of last year, $62,031.400. The exports for nine months ended Sept. 30 were $587,040,111, and for the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1892, $653,836,620. During September the agricultural exports were valued at $48,336,136, and the exports of manufactures at $16,382,431.

The statement also contains a table showing by calendar years the values of the exports and imports of merchandise during 1890, 1891 and 1892. From it the following figures are taken: 1890, exports, $857,502,548; imports, $823,397,726. 1891, exports, $979,569,646; imports, $828,320,943. 1892, exports, $938,420,660; exports, $603,177,874; imports, $625,331,972. The exports and imports of gold and bullion were as follows: 1890, exports, $24,063,074; imports, $20,230,090. 1891, exports, $79,086,581; imports, $44,970,110. 1892, exports, $76,532,056 imports, $17,450,945. Nine months of 1893. exports, $76,278,514; imports, $65,969,652. The exports and imports of silver coin and bullion were: 1890, exports, $26.529,789; imports, $22,426,119. 1891, exports,$27,692,879; imports, $18,192,750. 1892, exports, $35,975,834; imports, $21,726,252. Nine months of 1893, exports, $33,419,714; imports, $15,006,254. The exports in all the above cases include both domestic and foreign productions.

ON A SECRET MISSION.

Chevalier Wilson and Editor Eaton Made a Quiet Visit to the Capital.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- John R. Wilson and Benjamin Eaton, of Indianapolis, stole a march on their friends in Washington on Saturday. They spent the day mousing around the departments a part of the time with Representative Bynum and then slipped away without their presence here being known. Every Hoosier Democrat was to-day inquiring what brought them here It was reported that they were here in the Interest of Editor Shanklin, of Evansville, and that he was to be tendered one of the two consulships which he had expressed a willingness to accept-Manchester or Berlin-but there is no positive evidence that they mentioned Mr. Shanklin's name during their stay here. An Indianapolis Democrat says they came to reinforce Mr. Bynum in his demands for the appointment of an unknown as surveyor at the Hoosier capital port, but the Indianapolis Congressman says he does not know their mission here.

The New Adjutant-General.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- General Ruggles. the newly appointed Adjutant-general of the army, has been assistant adjutant-general for the past eighteen months, having come from New York with General Williams, just retired. He is a graduate of the class of 1855, West Point, and before the war he served on the staff of Colonel Miles, and later in the War Department on special duty, and again as chief of staff and adjutant-general of the Army of Virginia, under Pope. He was engaged at Cedar Mountain, Manassas, Chantilly, South Mountain, and, as adjutant-general of the Army of the Potomac, was at the taking of Petersburg and in pursuit of the rebel army terminating at Appcmattox. He was brevetted a brigadier general of the United States volunteers of the United States army near the close of the war.

The President to-day appointed Capt. W. P. Hall assistant adjutant-general of the army. Captain Hall was born in Missouri, in 1848. He graduated at West Point in 1857, and has since been in active service on the plains, and has participated in nearly every Indian war since 1867. At the time of Captain Hall's appointment he was captain of the Fifth Cavalry, now stationed at Fort McIntosh, Tex. He is the son of Judge William A. Hall, of Missouri, and a brother of Congressman Hall, of Missourt.

He is the son-in-law of Senator Blackburn. Cannot Get Their Offices Back. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- Chief Justice Fuller in the Supreme Court to-day denied the application of Parsons and Niniger, district attorney and marshal for Northern Alabama, for leave to file petitions of mandamus commanding the Alabama district court to reinstate them in the offices from which they were removed by President Cleveland, These men claimed that they could not be removed until their terms expired. The court did not go into the merits | nouncing anarchy.

and disposed of during the year were 203,- | of the matter, saying simply that the cases were not properly presented for their consideration. The United States Supreme Court to-day ended, so far as the upper courts are concerned, the long litigation over the escheated property of the Morman Church by Greeting the courts of Utah to proceed in con-formity with an act of the last Congress in disposing of the property.

Burning Grass in Virginia.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.-Mr. Bynum has been "doing" Virginia since Saturday afternoon. He spoke at Charlottesville on Saturday night, and is reported to be burning a little grass in that State to-day, and that he will light a bonfire in one of the Old Dominion hamlets to-night. It would be hard to understand the exact services which Mr. Bynum could render the Democratic ticket in Virginia, as the leading candidates are for free silver and opposed to Small Working Balance.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.-The Treasury Department to-day had an actual working balance not to exceed $2,000,000. If this becomes exhausted the department will have to meet current obligations from the gold reserve. The treasury officials, however, look for better times and a gradual increase in the reserve instead of further loss. It is expected that the coinage of gold at the Philadelphia and San Francisco mints between now and Jan. 1 next, will amount to from $20,000,000 to $20,000,000, according to the denominations coined.

Fourth-Class Postmasters.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- G. C. Harbaugh was to-day appointed postmaster at Colfax, Clinton county, vice D. E. White, removed, and Philip Hoffman, at Earle, Vander-burg county, vice Fred Boehn, resigned; also, D. T. Harvey, at Archie, Vermillion county, Illinois, vice G. W. Ester, resigned, and F. W. Pierce, at Fair Haven, Preble county, Ohio, vice W. P. Silner, removed.

Almost Ready to Resume. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.-Information received at the office of the Controller of the Currency respecting the collections and agreements with depositors as to extensions of time within which they shall not withdraw their deposits, indicate that the Citizens' National Bank, of Muncie, will likely be ready to reopen its doors for business by the end of this or the first of next week.

Immigration Falling Off. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- Treasury Department figures show that 34,519 immigrants arrived in the United States during September, and that 430,517 arrived during the nine months ended Sept 30; 476,848 arrived for the same nine months of 1892. Austro-Hungary furnished 3,678 of this month's aggregate; Germany, 7,621; Russia (except Poland), 3,937; Sweden and Norway, 4,053, and the United Kingdom, 11,287.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- J. C. English, of Danville, Ill., is at the Shoreham. Henry G. Unger, of Indiana, was to-day promoted in the depot quartermaster's office at Philadelphia, under the War Department, from the position of copyist, at $900 a year, to a clerk, at $1,000. Henry Owens, o. Bedford, is here sightseeing, and is stopping at the American. Mr. Hubbard, of New Castle, who was for some time Attorney-general Miller's private secretary, and who has for over a year been a special agent for the Department of Justice, and detailed to duties in Wyoming and other far Western States, is in the city. He is now occupying a special agent's desk in the Department of Justice, but does not expect to remain much longer in the federal service.

James E. Shepherd has returned to Washington from his visit to Indianapolis. He called at the Treasury Department, to-day, and was tendered his old position in the Fifth Auditor's office, which he will likely accept for another year, at least. The Controller of the Currency has been informed of the election of P. W. Smith to the presidency of the Decatur National Bank, of Decatur, Ind., in place of T. P. Dorlam, and Daniel Weldy, vice president, in place of P. W. Smith.

MR. CLARKSON'S VIEWS.

The Iowa Politician Discusses Finance, Tariff and the Elections.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 .- Hon. J. S. Clarkson, of Iowa, was seen to-day at the Plaza Hotel by a reporter, and, in speaking of the financial aspect of the country, said: "This silver panic has been altogether a silver panic created by the bankers for their own interests, and politics have had nothing to do with it. If it was on account of the silver question that trade was depressed its revival should be great and immediate. If the government has pulled the right tooth out of the patient he should get well. I don't believe, however, that the silver question was the cause of the depression. The real reason was the unsettled state of the country consequent on the change of the administration and the probability of a change in the financial policy. The Demperatic party has abandoned its intention of adopting free trade. It will give as much free trade as possible, but it must have money to carry on the government. Why, Mr. Crocker would not run the government of this city if there was not money in it. The revenue has seriously decreased, and if the tariff was abolished an income tax should be levied, which would be a most obnoxious measure. It takes $500,000,000 to run the government, and it must be raised out of revenue or otherwise. "I believe McKinley will carry Ohio by a large majority. The Democrats allow that there will be a majority. Iowa is against free trade and Massachusetts also. The Democratic party has got a severe lesson, which will, I believe, do it a great deal of good. In my opinion, we should have an American financial policy; we should have a continental financial understanding, and we should have an international financial agreement, if that be possible, but I am afraid that is only a dream, as the difference of governments, despotic, monarchical and republican, would seem to preclude the possibility of arriving at such an

New York is a European city, and desires to have the government of this country assimilated with European ideas. The bankers' attack on silver was a portion of this policy. Trade is rapidly reviving and will continue to revive. Now that it has been decided to make no material changes in the tariff the manufacturers will resume "The fight between McKinley and Neal is a fair and square one between the apostle of protection and the apostle of free trade. Ohio is one of the greatest manufacturing States, and its voice may be taken as reflecting the industrial centers of population in the country.'

TRYING TO LIVE CHEAPER.

Pennsylvania Workingmen Want Merchants to Reduce Prices. NEW CASTLE, Pa., Nov. 6.-Delegates from twenty labor organizations in this city met to-day to discuss some method by which the workingman could live cheaper. The wages of the men have been cut down from 20 to 40 per cent. and it was the sense of the meeting that landlords, grocers, butchers and other merchants should make some cut in prices. A co-operative scheme was strongly urged at first, but it was decided to appoint one member from each organization represented, the whole to constitute a committee whose duty it will be to visit the merchants and make a canvass to see which firm will make the greatest discount to the workmen represented by the labor organizations. It was decided to select one grocer, one butcher, one clothing man, etc., and throw all the trade to them, provided, of course, that they will make a reasonable discount. In case this is not done then the men will start their co-operative store.

Murder in Morgan County-Trick of a Runaway Wife at Muncie-Why Effie Hornbeck Took Poison.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 6 .- The grand jury to-day indicted six prominent business men of this city for murderous conspiracy. Last July M. L. Garrigus, nephew of County Auditor Garrigus, was assaulted in a dark hallway by three unknown persons, the purpose being to drive to an isolated spot and administer a coat of tar and feathers. The plot failed. Garrigus shot one of the assailants and escaped. Later Emery Moss, a colored bartender, suffering from a bullet wound, was arrested as one of the attempted abductors. Garrigus claimed the colored man had been hired by conspirators, and laid the matter before the grand jury. Garrigus was agent for a Chicago paper that had villified a number of good citizens here, and he alleges they formed a conspiracy to kill him. The grand jury to-day found indictments against L. B. Hodgin, a manufacturer and ice dealer; W. F. Ruddell, a capitalist and merchant; H. H. Stewart, councilman from the Fifth ward; James F. Bruff, a leading architect; Harry Chaney, chief clerk of the Clinton Hotel; George Hodgin, cook at the same hotel; Duff Artis and Emery Moss, the latter colored men, who are supposed to have done the work with the assistance of Hodgin. All were arrested and gave bond of $1,000 each.

This evening a bloody tragedy was narrowly averted. Councilman Stewart, one of the indicted men, met policeman George R. Hutto in a business house, and after a few words drew a revolver and attempted to shoot the officer. The latter also drew his gun, and but for the timely interference of the councilman's son a tragedy would have resulted.

MURDERED AT CHURCH.

One Man's Throat Cut and Another's Hend Badly Pounded. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 6.-Bedford Kent cut Noah King's throat from ear to ear last night at the threshold of Willow Grove schoolhouse while a religious meeting was in progress. The two were mixed up in a quarrel with several others. Isaac Northern was hit on the head with a slung shot by Milton Ferrand. King died in twenty minutes. Northern will recover. Kent and Ferrand escaped in the direction of Paragon. It was very dark. and so few words spoken during the fight that little is known of the cause of the trouble. The worshipers in the congregation thought that the men were not quarreling, but that the talk and noise was the result of intoxicants. But when they went to the scene, just outside of the door, however, they found one man with his head badly bruised and King dying. They carried him into the schoolhouse and he soon expired. Ferrand and Kent are cousins, and the former is visiting with Kent. Kent killed a man once in the Morgan county edge of Marion county and served three years in the penitentiary for the offense. The sheriff failed to find them last night.

NO BLOOD WAS SHED.

A Runaway Wife Cleverly Outwits Her Stupid Husband.

MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 6.-J. M. Williams, an employe of the Chicago postoffice, arrived in Muncie yesterday in search of his runaway wife. It was reported that the woman was with B. F. Barnell, of Montpelier, in Blackford county, and Williams came with the intention of killing both of them if found together. He called at hear former home in Muncie and found the guilty couple, but the woman very neatly foiled him. She met her husband at the door and greeted him with hugs and kisses. Barnell, who was in the room, was introduced as a relative. The woman said she was just preparing to return home, and that she would at once prepare her trunk. After she had been absent from the room for some time, Barnell left the house, bid-Williams good-bye. It now seems that the woman at once slipped out the back door and was joined by Barnell soon afterwards. Since then Williams has been unable to find either, and he will likely take the revolver back to Chicago unused He is nearly crazed with grief, and cannot explain his wife's actions. Mrs. Williams was raised in Muncie and Barnell is an old lover, who has a family at Montpeller. Williams vows that he will murder both

MISS HORNBECK'S SUICIDE.

She Thought Her Lover Had Taken Poison and Resolved to Die.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Nov. 6 .- The coroner's investigation of the suicide of Miss Effic Hornbeck, in this city last night, developed the fact that, besides despondency over her serious affliction, she had a quarrel with her sweetheart, John Weathers, of Indianapolis. Weathers had bought the strychnine with the evident intention of taking it himself, but had changed his mind. When Effle recovered from her seventh spasm of the afternoon, and seeing her lover in a stupor on the floor, believed he had taken poison, she searched his pocket for the drug and took the dose herself. When Weathers saw what had been done he disappeared, and cannot be found. Miss Hornbeck had attempted suicide by poison twice before while living in Columbus. The coroner is withholding his verdict until Weathers can be found and some tangling circumstances are cleared up.

HIS AGE IS 114.

Alexander Hockaday, of Harrison County, Preparing for His Birthday. NEW ALBANY, Ind., Nov. 6.-On Nov. 17 Alexander Hockaday, residing in Spencer township, Harrison county, about twentyfive miles west of New Albany, will celebrate the one hundred and fourteenth anniversary of his birth. He was born in Virginia in 1779, the date, it is claimed, being authenticated by the record of a family Bible now in the old man's possession. When quite young he came to Kentucky with his parents, but removed to Indiana when the State was a part of the great Northwestern Territory. Seventy years ago he removed to the farm in Harrison county on which he now resides, and has lived there continuously since that time. His wife is still living at the age of eighty-six years, and is sufficiently active to perform many of the household duties. Mr. Hockaday still retains his mental faculties almost unimpaired, and is wonderfully active for his years. He says he has voted at every presidential election since 1800, a period of ninety-three years, and has always cast/his vote for the Democratic nominee, his three last votes cast having been for Mr. Cleveland. The old man appears to suffer no abatement of strength, and bids fair to live many years more.

A LOGANSPORT MURDER.

Michael Shocknessy Shot While Breaking Into a Woman's House. LOGANSPORT, Ind., Nov. 6. - Hattie

Steele fatally shot Michael Shocknessy this morning at the home of the former. Shocknessy and two companions, named Staley and Hutchins, called at Mrs. Steele's home and demanded admittance. Upon being refused the door was forced open. Mrs. Steele pulled a revolver and, taking deliberate aim at Shocknessy's heart, fired. The bullet entered his body just below the heart and came out near the spine. The woman fired a shot at Staley and one at Hutchins, but the bullets went wide of their mark. Shocknessy was taken to his Steele and her lover were both arrested and are now in the county jail.

Murderer Owens Afraid of a Jury. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 6.-The case against Elias Owens for killing James Briggs came up for trial in the Superior Court this morning, and the court room was packed. Last June Owens shot and instantly killed Briggs, a well-to-do citizen of Clay City. Owens's attorney moved for a continuance of the case on the ground that William

HE WANTED TO SHOOT | White, a prominent witness, was absent from the county. Considerable excitement was occasioned by the prosecuting attorney rising and angrily shouting that White was purposely absented from the city, and that the whole thing was a conspiracy to get a continuance. It is claimed that Owen's friends have said that if they could get his trial put off until after the Cooprider-Kress murder case had been disposed of he would have a better show, as it is generally believed that Cooprider will get a light sentence, if any at all, and this would influence the jury in dealing leniently with Armstrong Wants Free Counsel. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Nov. 6.-James K. Armstrong, ex-treasurer of Tipton, charged with embezzling more than $40,000 of county funds, came to this county on change of venue for trial and is now in jail at this place. The three cases against Armstrong were set for trial for Monday, Dec. 11. The separate charges are embezzlement, aiding a prisoner in an attempted escape and con-spiring to enable prisoners to break jail. Armstrong appeared in court this morning and said he has no money or means with which to employ attorneys to defend him-self. He said all his money was locked up in the county treasurer's office and the bank and that his property had been turned over to the county. He was dressed in a genteel suit of clothes and he shows his confinement. He asked the court to appoint Mr. Overbay, of the Tipton bar, to defend him. The court took this under advisement till Saturday.

Chased Off an Ignorant Burglar. Special to the Indianpolis Journal. BEDFORD, Ind., Nov. 6 .- Henry Owen, of this city, returned to his home early Sunday morning from watching over his father, Jordan Owen, who is seriously ill. Approaching the house he noticed a man at the door. Mr. Owen hastened to investigate and the man fled. The man left enough behind to show he was about to chloroform the family by putting the drug through the transom. (Ed.—He must have been a very ignorant prowler to think the inmates could be chloroformed in the above implied manner. The stories about chloroforming people through transoms, windows, keyholes and cracks are all rubbish. Nobody was ever so chloroformed, it being an impossibility, as even the most ignorant of quacks can verify. Application at the nostrils is the only way, and this invariably awakens the sleeper.)

Shot at by a Would-Be Assassin.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Nov. 6.-Daniel Caylor, a well-to-do farmer three miles southeast of this city, went out on his farm at 6 o'clock this morning and some one began shooting at him. Five shots were fired and one passed through the thick portion of Caylor's left thigh, inflicting a serious wound. Charles Boden, who lives on an adjoining farm, was arrested and charged with the shooting. He stoutly denies that he did it and seemed to be greatly surprised at his arrest. He was arraigned before 'Squire Bussell for preliminary examination and the injured man being unable to attend court, the matter was postponed to Nov. 20, and the defendant held to bail for his appearance at that time.

A Sensation for Burlington.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DELPHI, Ind., Nov. 6 .- Particulars of a cruel desertion come from Burlington, this county. Three years ago A. C. Waddle married Viola Garrison, daughter of a widow, and a reigning belle in that village. They moved to Arcadia, Hamilton county, where Waddle had a prosperous business Two weeks ago, with their little babe, the couple went to Burlington on a visit, and soon afterward the husband found an excuse for returning to Arcadia. He has not been seen since, but has sent a letter to his young wife from Chicago, informing her that he has made up his mind he made a mistake in getting married, and that he intended to start in life anew.

Smallpox Scare About Over.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. UNION CITY, Ind., Nov. 6 .- The quarantine against Muncie was officially raised by the Board of Health here to-day. People can now go and come from the "magic city" without fear or hindrance. Secretary Commons, of the Union City board, says that the quarantine against the colored settlement, nine miles south of here, will probably be raised Wednesday. There are no new cases at the settlement and those sick are all doing well. It seems that the smallpox scare has reached the end.

MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 6.-Sarah Wysor, aged sixty-eight, wife of J. H. Wysor, one of Muncie's oldest and wealthiest residents. died suddenly this afternoon of paralysis of the heart. She had been sick only to-day, and her sudden death caused much surrise. Mr. and Mrs. Wysor were married n Peru in 1854 and have resided here over thirty years. She is the mother of Harry and William Wysor and Mrs. W. M. Marsh. The funeral will occur Wednesday.

Mrs. Nickols Admitted to the Bar.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 6 .- The first woman admitted to practice law in the Montgomery county courts was Mrs. Fannie Nickols, who was admitted to-day. The judge at first demurred to granting the request, but after he was shown that the Supreme Court had decided that women could be attorneys, he granted the request. She is the daughter of G. W. Paul.

Died Away from Home.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HUNTINGTON, Ind., Nov. 6 .- Henry A. Arnold, a leading business man of this city, died to-day at Kenosha, Wis., where he had gone some four weeks ago for treatment at a sanitarium. He was one of the best known business men in the county and had been in trade here for some twenty years. A wife and one son survive him.

A Woman Walked to Her Death. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 6 .- Mrs. Ollie Nye, wife of a carpenter, was instantly killed at the outskirts of the city by a passenger train on the Logansport division of the Vandalia this noon. The train was in full sight when she walked toward the track. She did not heed the wistle or bell and seemed to be unconscious of her danger.

FLORIDA WANTS THEM

Mitchell and Corbett Offered a Big Purse by the Elks Club.

Nothing Will Be Done, However, Till Word Is Received from New Orleans -The Jacksonville Offer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 .- A reporter saw Billy Thompson, Mitchell's manager, at the Hoffman House this evening. Mitchwas with him. "I have seen printed announcement," said he, "published by Richard K. Fox, stating that the Elks' Club will put up a purse of $39,000 for a fight between Mitchell and Corbett, and guarantee $10,000 as security, but I look on it as something of a myth. At any rate, I have received no communication from them. The Elks is a good club, and composed of some of the best known men in Florida. We are getting these offors every day, but Mitchell will do nothing until he hears from the New Orleans business, and it is finally settled. Mitchell wants the fight to come off. To show how straightforward he is in this matter, Mr. W. A. Edwards had offered him $20,000 for a ten weeks' engagement, but he has point-blank refused to accept it until we know whether this is on or off "Yes." said Mr. Edwards, "that is so.

have five one-thousand-dollar bills which I will put up now, and the other $15,000 tomorrow, if he will accept the offer, but he won't take it.' Manager Brady said he believed the Elks' offer to be bona fide, but would do nothing until he heard definitely from New Orleans. "I expect," he said, "to have an an-

The Jacksonville Offer. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 6.-When the story of the negotiations between Corbett and Mitchell and the Olympic Club, of New Orleans, was read here this evening it made at least four men "laugh in their sleeves"-for they knew that the story was a big bluff to divert public attention from the real negotiations now going on. Three well known business men of this city have been in negotiation for the past four days with a New York man very close to both Corbett and Mitchell and the result is that to-night a certified check for $10,000 was mailed to Richard K. Fox, of New York, with a paper attached noting the conditions of the offer from the Jacksonville syndicate. are as follows: The fight place Fla., $20,000 put up by the Jacksonville syndicate;

the time to be between Dec. 15 and Jan. 15 next: both Mitchell and Corbett to put up a forfeit of $2,500 each for failure to ap pear and fight; Richard K. Fox to hold the stakes; the fight to be with regulation gloves, Marquis of Queensbury rules; tenthousand-dollar check to be put up immedately, the other check for $10,000 to be put up as soon as the representatives of Corbett and Mitchell accept these terms, sign the agreement and put up their forfeit of $2,500 each.

BRIGGS MEN WILL CONFER.

Proposed Meeting of Liberal Ministers of the Presbyterian Church.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 6 .- About fifty of the most prominent liberal ministers of the Presbyterian Church in the large cfties will meet in Cleveland on Wednesday to decide the pointer derby stake. The following upon the policy for the future. Every effort has been made to keep the matter secret, though the result would be made known at all events. Some of the most prominent Briggs men in the country will ards, of Minnesota, second; Telia, owned | be present. The circular which called the meeting says:

> "The present condition of the Presbyterian Church occasions deep solicitude and calls for immediate and serious consideration. Many ministers and elders view with apprehension the tendency to assumption and centralization of the power and the disposition both to impose practically new dogma without due constitutional process, and to treat the formal action and overtures of presbyteries with small respect. They fear lest the reasonable toleran the liberty of opinion hitherto enjoyed under the standards shall be abridged, and not a few devoted office-bearers crowded out of good ecclesiastical standing, or even out of the church. In this state of affairs it will not answer for loyal Prespyterians to be inactive or indifferent. We cannot afford to be silent under implied suggestiens of heterodoxy, nor to seem to acquesce passively in arbitrary assumptions, rigid exclusiveness and uncer stitution to cedure. We must not suffer worthy brethren to be forced needlessly to leave the church. A frank conference of wise and representative men who shall consider what action is needed at this present juncture to maintain our constitutional safeguards. encourage our disturbed brethren and give frank expression to our views and position. seems to have become an imperative neces-

ONE THOUSAND DEAD.

Victims of the Santander Explosion Greater Than First Reported.

MADRID, Nov. 6 .- On his arrival at Santander to-day Senor Gamazo held a consuitation with the authorities and the leading citizens, and assured them of the deep sympathy of the Queen Regent, who, he said, had wept upon hearing of the terrible disaster which had overtaken their city. Senor Gamazo telegraphed to Valiodolid for medicines and doctors, and headed a subscription list with $5,000 in behalf of the government. A decree has been issued authorizing the application of the remainder of the funds contributed for the sufferers by the Consuegra floods to the people who suffered as special policeman. The fire laddies didn't | by the disaster at Santander. The fire brigades from Vallodolid and Bilbao have succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The medicines, provisions, clothing and other articles have arrived from Barcelona and other Spanish towns. The funeral of the Marquis Pombo, one of the victims, was held to-day. The body was terribly mutilated. The head was en-tirely severed, and the trunk was in two portions. The burial of the other bodies which had been recovered also took place to-day. In most cases the collins contained only parts of human remains. These were placed in indiscriminate tombs. Great crowds attended the funeral ceremonies and followed the remains to the cemetery. Divers began the work of recovering the corpses from the sea, but they became so appalled at the number of bodies which they found that they refused to proceed. and begged the authorities not to compel them to continue the horrifying task. They said that the fish had begun preying upon the corpses, which were already badly mutilated. Owing to the repugnance of the divers to finish the work, men with grappling irons have been employed to extract the bodies from the sea. The number of dead, missing and injured is still unknown. It is certain that the number will reach one thousand. Many persons are dying from their wounds, and several are expected to die as a result of the fright they experienced at the time of the explosion. Lopez Doriga, a naval officer who was an eyewitness of the explosion, asserts that the steamer had at least 1,000 cases of dynamite of thirty-five kilos each on board. After the fire had started he went slongside the vessel in company with the naval authorities to assist in extinguishing the flames. Finding this impossible the naval commandant ordered a tug to tow her out into the stream, but the fire gained so rapidly that the commandant ordered that the ship be sunk where she was. The tank

cocks were thereupon opened to admit the

Doriga the ship for a few moments and elbowed his way through the crowd of people on the quay. He was behind a cart fifty yards distant when he was half stunned by the explosion. He fell beneath the cart, while an immense shower of wreckage, consisting of iron bars, rails and joists passed over his head. The steamer was lifted clean out of the water. A portion of the hull was warped and curved towards the stern, and then fell again with a splash into the sea, sinking together with the tug boats, the transatiantic liner and other craft near by. On recovering his senses, Senor Doriga saw around him a horrible multitude of dead bodies and figures writhing in the agonies of death. Fragments of human bodies were strewn everywhere. The next thing that he detected was the city in Numerous wrecks of houses can be seen in all directions. The discharge of projectiles from the steamer raised great clouds of dust. The streets were filled with splintered doors, fallen tiles of roofs and debris of every description. The property loss at present cannot be estimated, but it will be very large.

Invalid Indictments. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 6 .- Judge Johnson to-day decided that the indictments found by the late grand jury against Eugene S. Elliott and F. W. Noyes, directors of the Plankinton Bank, were invalid because the grand jury returned them at the October term of the municipal court, whereas the grand jury's term had expired with the September term for which it was called, This decision invalidates all the indictments returned against the officers of the Plankinton and South Side Savings Banks.
